To the Student Body:

As young American citizens, the responsability resting upon you is enormous. While at present you are nothing more than young people of, high school age, and therefore care-free, the burden of 'ving on' will fall upon you before you are aware. Redless of the magnitude of the responsibility, I am sure you will measure up to it for I know you and believe in you. Do not dedge this responsibility. On the other hand, fortify yourselves to meet it. Education is your best means to accomplish this. Very respectfully,

F. L. MARANNAIL

Greetings:

To my loyal fellow-tenchers and to the enriest students of Codar Falls High. Our goal is the best school in the best state in the United States. It is possible to attain this. We must be willing to pay the price. The price is loyalty to every fellow-student as if he were your blood brother, loyalty to every school organization as if you were personally responsible for its activity, mutual respect for each other's ideas and ideals, and the will to win both in the classroom and in athletics.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

As we the class of 1929, are passing through the portals of dear old C. I. H. S., we are conscious of having pleasant memors of our past school days. We can but dimly remember those first few years when we were under Mr. Holmes' care in the old Lincoln Building, but those joyous two voirs which we spent in the new building we can remember better.

Two of the important events during this latter period were the Eighth-grade pienic and the Ninth-grade protection. These two occasions are well worth remembering,

We couldn't stay in the new building any longer; they sent us over to the Senior High School in the fall of 1926. Here we continued our road to education under Mr. Sarle's care with Mrs. Marshall assisting. The rest of the faculty helped us along, too, so that we really weren't as insignificant as one might think. For weren't we represented in debate, and on the football and basketball squads? And wasn't our girls' basketball team the winner of the fournament?

By the next fall we had progressed quite a distance and stood our own ground in the spring of the year during the class rivalry. We elected Arloe Olsen to be our president, John Boysen, Leone Meyer, and Viola Haehlen to assist him. But even with these leaders we couldn't have gone so far had it not been for the guidance of Miss Farbic and Miss Simpson, our sponsors. Their help was especially appreciated in putting on the big went of the year, the Junio Smior banquet, when we went in search of The Pot of Gold at the end of the rainbow. When our Junior year was completed we remember that several of our members had been in different activities; glee club, orchestra, declanatory, debate, Hi-Y—Y, W. play, football, basketball, track, Science Club, Home Economics Club, Hi-Y and Y, W. cabinets and G. A. A. Our go s' basketball team was again the champion as were abo the soccer and volley ball teams. So that year on our road to education seems almost as outstanding as the past year.

Since our Senior year at C. F. H. S. is just closing we can remember very clearly almost all of the things which occurred. We elected our class officers of a matthe year. They were John Boysen, president. Theodore Hansen, vic president and Arthur Mullens, secretar trensurer. "Joe" Wilson was captain of the football team and "Bob" Swer and Leo (180), captains in basketball. We were also represented in Hi-Y and Y. W., G. A. A. athlettes, dramatics, science club, and glee clubs. Or an electric to in funshed its career after being champion for three consecutive years. This volume of Red and Black is the result of the efforts of some of our members and especially Naomi Jewell, the editor. It certainly has been worth our while to spend all these and the second of the leadership we have had from our class sponsors. Miss Rait and Miss Sebern.

These memories of our school days will always stay with us and we pass through the portals with dear old C. F. H. S. behind but not forgotten.

CLASS PROPHECY

The Annual Staff of the Red and Black and the Senior officers of the Class of 1929 were scated around the Campfire. It was just twenty one years since we had graduated from High School and this was our first remnon. Phyllis and I were home for a vacation after a stremons winter's work, for we are running a home for red-haired orphans with Helen E. Petersen and Maxine White as our head-matrons.

We had noticed by the "Record" that practically all of the old staff and officers were in town so we dedicated to have a picnic. We went to the Backbone State Park, upon the invitation of the enstodians, Orman White and Elmer Eickelberg who had heard of our plans. As is usual at such gatherings, the conversation turned to our old classinates

"Say, did you hear the latest?" asked Art Mullens, who is now in Ringling Brothers Circus as the tallest man in the world, "Chuck Jones is a millionaire."

"Well, where did he get all the money?" chuned in Eloise, the proprietor of the chain launderies for bosicry.

"You see he was left a little money and he financed Ruth Boysen's and Margaret Thompson's invention, the portable auto, and it proved a success. It was surely a great surprise."

"Isn't that grand, but did you hear of the invention of Dorothy Wolfe?", asked Phyllis. "It is a swimming suit worn over the clothes so you can come out of the water, zip it off, and you are ready for the street in your lest clothes."

"Yes", said John Boyson, breeder of scaleless fish, "I had heard that. You know Ruth Latta is using one in her swim of Lake Michigan, after which she and Arlo Olsen are debating in Fishertown. That is where Jerry Fisher has her Joke Book Factory."

"I heard about the reputation Arlo is making in his Senate debates from Richard Sucher who was attending a fractor demonstration at Detroit last week, when I was returning from my concert tour in Europe," exclaimed Myrtle, our noted planist.

"Well be got a good start in school, -by the way, how does it seem to be speech instructor in old C. F. H. S. Agatha?," asked John. "My but we are proud that one of our numbers has been called back to the old institution. I understand a new trophy case has been donated by Frederick Breckenfelder's Manufacturing Company which covers one entire section of the main floor".

"I wish I knew what has happened to all our Class of '29", eried Naomi, author of the "Juney Junching Bedtime Stories."

"Your wish shall be granted," came a hollow voice from behind the group.

Startled, everyone looked around and we beheld a typical old gypsy.

"Come to my camp and I will tell you what they are doing."

Eagerly we followed and were soon in a weird-looking gypsy camp at the edge of the woods. The gypsies chanted softly and after awhile news came quickly and imbrief snatches but enough for us to get the meaning. The seer wasted no words, simply told us what he saw.

Hospital --murses---Kathryn V. L.--Mabel H.--Chreago."

The editor is Viola Kj -and Business Mancger seems to be Dorot—Sim . The picture fades and I now see an airplane of the windows, several stories high. Its name looms up; Turnbull and M. Ni en Travelling Dry Goods Store, it comes to your ——.

"Oh, that reminds me," exclaimed Naomi, forgetting about needed quiet for the charm, "while I was on my way home on the Gibbs-Nykvist Airship Line, I met several of our old puls. Stan Petersen was head porter, Bob Speer was chief cook and our little Edna was pilot. They said they have nearly run the Petric J. Nielsen Railroad Co. out of business."

The spell was broken and the gypsy chief said it would take about fifteen minutes to get the charm to work again, so we walked around their camp. We were looking at one of the kettles of food when Virginia asked, "Have any of you enten at the Chuck-Rock Chop Suey in Hollywood"? When I was working on my last picture last winter I ate there every week and had several chats with Charles Messerly and Dorothy R."

As we neared one of the tents, a gypsy face looked familiar and we all spoke at once, "Why, Ed Johnson, what are you doing here?" She-sh-sh I'm doing detective work for the Savage, Danielson Detective Bureau. Several gypsy tribes are in-lived and the only way to get next to the situation is to be one of the tribe. My friend the chief has allowed me to live with them a year, to investigate the matter,"

The seer called us back as the flame was getting cloudy again, "I see a large building", said the seer. "On one window I see the name Judge Stingley. On the next window is Weisbard Matrimonial Bureau. Then another large building in which an immigrant officer is moving about—Joe Wilson. It seems to show also a short girl in nuise's uniform I think it spells F-R-I-E-D-A B-E-L-Z."

"It seems very dim, but I see a theatre billboard advertising a musical trio. The names, Ted, L—and Pierce. The second is now clearer,—Leo. He seems to be manager of the group. On the same bill I see as vandeville performers two beautiful girls, Mary Emma and Evelyn Randall. The picture fades,—we then see a fruit orchard but it is still California—two girls—Verna Larsen—Mildred Thierman—orange trees."

"Oh! Oh! Oh!" screamed one of the girls and the charm was broken again because a snake had entered the circle.

"You know snakes always remind me of Robert Sucher", said Virginia. "He bas a farm where he raises snakes and alligators."

"Well, well, his trip to the Fiji Islands with the War Corpll Expedition must have aroused his interest in such," said Naomi. "I noticed an article in the paper by their two secretaries, Thelma Carroll and Leona Mey and the converse of the Commercial Department,"

"Shouldn't we start home?" asked Art. "I perform at Janesville tomorrow and require ten hours sleep to maintain my complete stature." At that the girls started picking up the left-overs and packing their baskets.

"Where did that delicious salad come from?" asked Agatha. "Why it came from the E. Petersen and Bergstrom delicatessen. They are next door to the Barnes, Boelander Beauty Shop on Main Street," said Eloise.

"If we want to stop at the Sorensen Inn for some of those Clewell Pop Sandwiches, you girls had better hurry along," yelled John, so in about three minutes to the our way home. After having our Pop sandwiches we hade each other in a stand scattered to our various homes, fired but happy.

REFLECTIONS

As I sit in the dusky twilight Thinking over our High School days I have a longing desire To lift my voice in praise.

We started as little Freshmen As green as the grass in Spring, But we looked up to the Sentors And aspired to do great things.

We were loval to the school standard, And helped it honors to gain; We gave the best that was in us, And treed our poor little brains.

And tried to get Freshmen to see That we were a part of this great school And that they should be loyal as we.

Jumor year was filled with excitement.
With banquets, elections and rings,
Still we studied and envied the Semiors
Wondering what the next year would bring.

Our last year is nearly ended. We have either lost or won.

And we feel a regretful state.

As we realize our work is done.

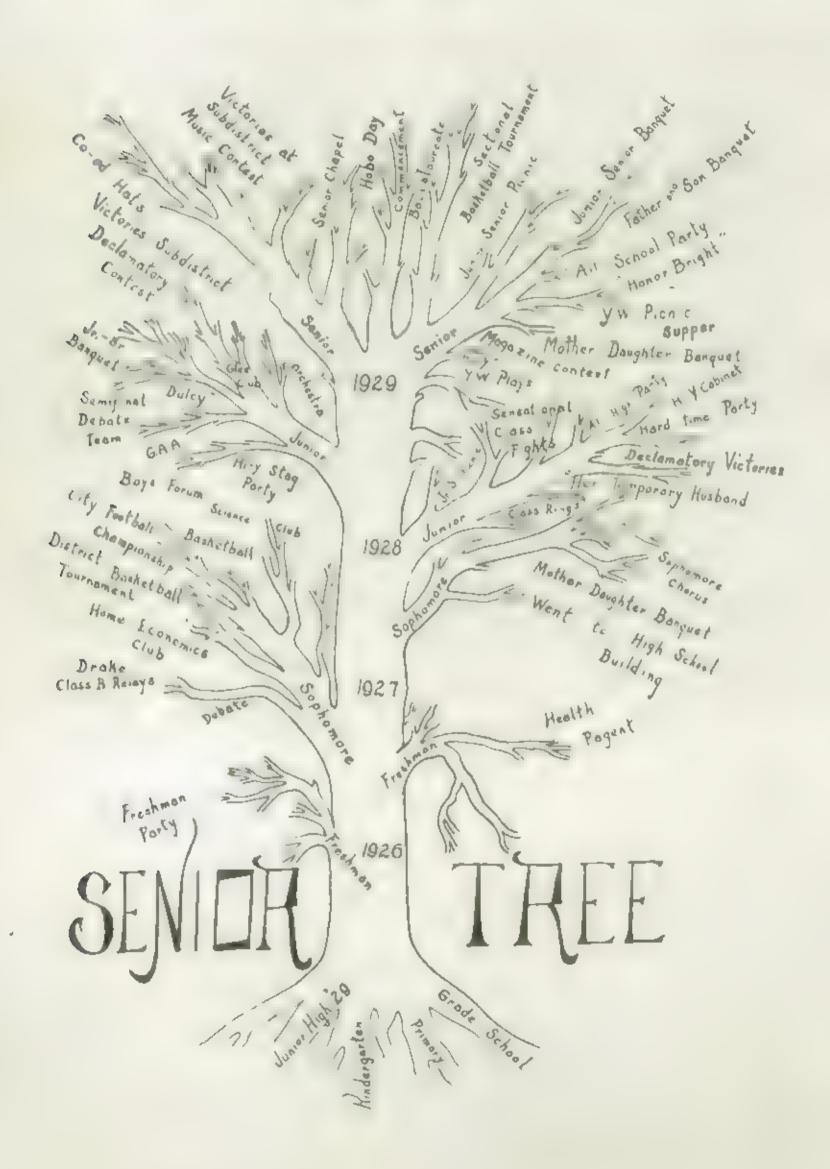

The time cannot turn backward,
And the races cannot be re-run.
We've learned this one thing in High School
"To do things and have them 'Well done'."

THE JUNIOR CLASS ELECTION

Now I have just decided—no politics for me And if you were a Junior the reason you would see We had a class election - I live to tell the tale, So if you want to listen, I'll make my little wail,

It seemed that we were hot and cross and tired, too, When first Mess Armstrong called upon us our duty there to do. We triffed and we giggled and bit our penerls so She very soon decided we might better let it go.

It was a long proceeding and took full many days. We had a lot of trouble in lots of dreadful ways; We balloted and balloted,—we were but wasting time, Oh, well, I'll have to hurry on or never end my rhyme.

We had to have a sponsor, Miss Simpson finally won And then to choose a president,—it wasn't any fun, But of course we finally did it, for patience was a second And now, perhaps it's just as well it didn't construct as

For though we nearly perished we did the best we could And looking at our officers we know the work was good; Now looking back upon it we find the time worth while For now that we are organized the Jumor Class can smile.

HERE WE ARE FOLKS

Here we are folks, look us over Call the roll as we pass, Here's "Burt" Byers, he's in clover Humorist, lover, surplus brass.

Marian Jepsen is the scholar She's musician for the school, And in music Burdette Moeller Is the Junior's "Singing Fool,"

"Ruthie" Johnson is the charmer Who from college hill comes down; Ralph Simmerson is our farmer Mudeline lives quite near to town.

We've got pupils in large number Who are wide awake and wise Genevieve May will never slumber But a few are otherwise.

Stanley Deal is rabbit-tracker In the winter you will find; David Mucler's chief wise-cracker With Henry Petersen close behind,

Any flappers? I guess maybe
"Shorty" Hoyt comes here of course
And Ruth Mary—she's some baby,
So's Phyllis Cutter and Lois Morse.

We're faced problems altogether Some were small and some were great, But "Woolverton" is tough as leather When she goes out for debate,

None of us is an ignoraneous And I'm not afraid to bet Though we still are far from famous You will hear about us yet.

Our Junior High team tested their strength this year by buttles with the Training School and Cedar Heights Junior High Schools. They were victorious, not so much from the standpoint of scores, but in the experience gained through these games. We should have no lear regarding the future Tigers, for if the boys keep on in the spirit they have shown this year, they will fill the requirement of good athletes.

The mighty Ninth A's and B's were the winners of both the Soccer and Basschall Interclass games, however in Volleyball the mighty on a were conquered by the lower classmen, the Seventh and Eighth grade girls. When their dual came about the Eighth grade won the fournament by one point.

WHO'S WHO

GEORGE HAUSER-1912—George first made a name for immself in football while playing with the Tigers. All that was necessary, if the Tigers wished a touchdown, was to give George the ball. While attending the University of Minnesota, he was chosen on the All-American Football team. He has since been on the Faculty at the University of Minnesota, lowa State College, Colgate University, and next year is to be Football Coach at Olio University at Columbus.

FERNER NUHN-1920—'I mose of us who read the Book Page in the Des Moines Sunday Register have often seen Book Reviews written by Ferner Nubu. Thus year Ferner has been in San Diego, California, working on a book. And best of all, just as we are compiling material for this annual, we learn that Ferner loss taken unto himself a wife, who is none other than Ruth Suckow—a coming lowa author.

STAXLEY WOOD—19 " -You remember "Ben-Zeen" who used to appear at our Pep meetings and to kle our "funny hones,". He's been climbing up fast since be left us to attend lown State Teachers College. This year he played an important part in the Mid-Winter Play at the College. This honor rarely comes to a Sophomore. What may we expect from him when a Senio "

Helen. Nothing was ever too hard for her to attempt, and if attempted, we knew it would be well done. During her Semor year in C. F. H. S. she served as President of the Y. W. C. A. and all who were associated with her will agree that Helen was one of the finest that has ever lead the organization. As a real test of her character and enthusiasm, she has been elected to serve as President of the Y. W. C. A. at Iowa State Teachers College.

ALICE DOWDEN-1927.—This past year Alice won first prize of one hunmed dollars at the Perfect Spine Contest, conducted by the Palmer School of Chiropractic. During the four short years that she was with us here at C. F. H. S. we found out many nice things about her. She was a fine student, very dependable, won many friends, and made an excellent Y. W. President. We know that Alice is still living up to her ideals while attending I. S. T. C.

VIVIAN JOHNSON—1915—We find the Alumni of C. F. H. S. well represented in many fields of endeavor. Vivian Johnson has made a name for himself in the banking field. He was recently elected First Vice-President and Cashier of the Citizens-Security Trust and Savings Bank of Cedar Falls. Previous to this, he served as Cashier of the Citizens Savings Bank of Cedar Falls.

FRANK MILLER—1923—It is not always easy to determine just what a High School student is best fitted for. However, this was not the case with Frank. While in C. F. H. S. it was almost an every day occurrence to see him taking pictures—anytime, any place, and of anybody. He is now connected with the Eastman Kodak Company of Rochester, New York. It is needless to say that Frank has made good, as he is now traveling in South America taking pictures for the company.

Former Students Send "Best Wishes"

Dear Alumni Editor and Students:

Imagine my embarrassment, when entering a restaurant last week and placing an order for hash, to have the waiter turn and yell towards the kitchen, "Sweep the floor,"

I have since wondered if you undergraduates didn't have a similar feeling towards the Semor Class of 1927, and thought it quite a relief to have the floor swept of these pestiferous and lordly semors of that year.

Nevertheless there is no one more interested in your every triumph, whether athletic or social, than we alumni, in particular the class of '27.

Sincerely,

HOWARD B. LAONARD.

Dear Alumni Editor and Students:

I received your recent letter and will endeavor to fulfill your request here with:

To the Class of Nincteen Bundred and Twenty Nine;

A year has passed since the class of nineteen hundred and twenty eight was publishing its yearbook. Now we are included among the Alumni of Cedar Falls High School, yet I feel certain that we have not forgotten our high school days. Rest assured that we alumni will always support you.

Wishing you the best of success, I am

Sincerely yours,

FREDERICK L. MERNER.

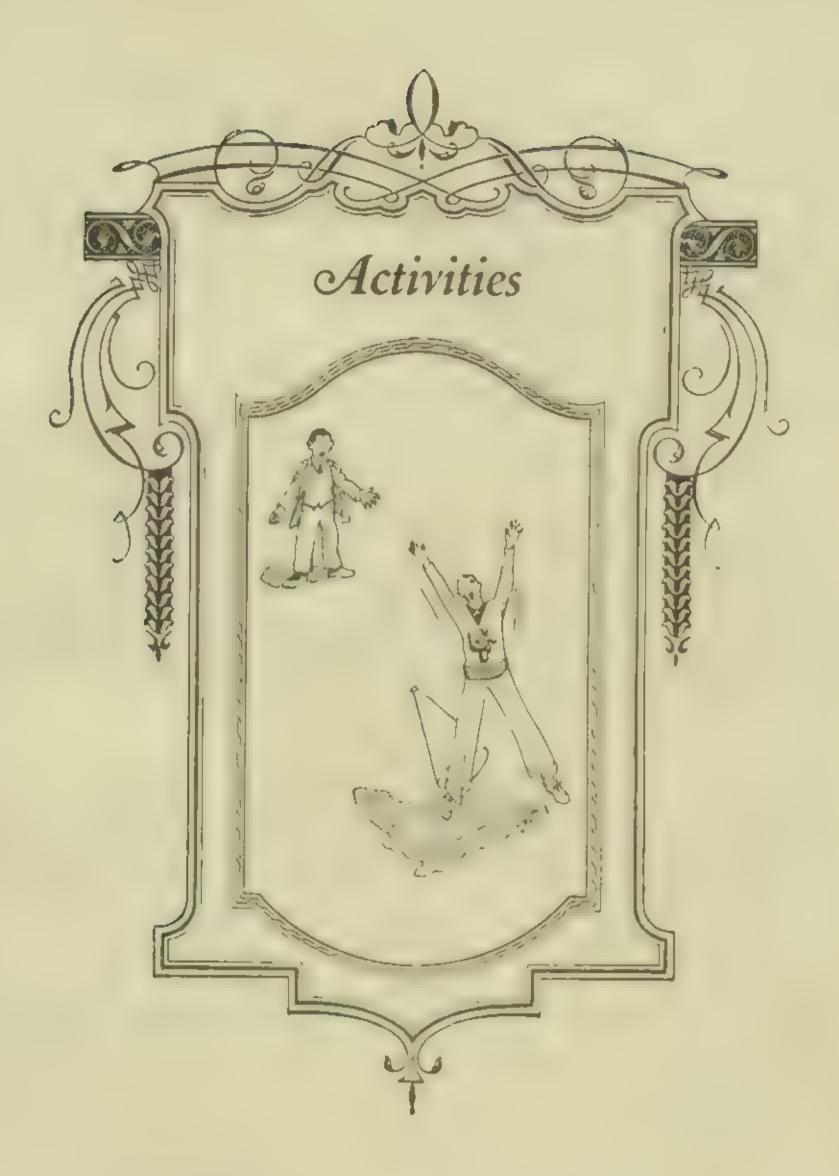

Dear Editor and Students:

Little did I think when I was a yell leader at "Dear old C. F. High" that I would ever be teaching public speaking and delate in a high school boasting an enrollment of 2,000. Nor did I suppose that four years after I hist sang the loyalty song I would be teaching a class composed mainly of future forest rangers, in the Colorado Ag. College. But I did, and here I am in this great suburb of Cleveland, enjoying a cozy home, a good wife, a good position, and pleasant memories of those happiest years at C. F. H. S.

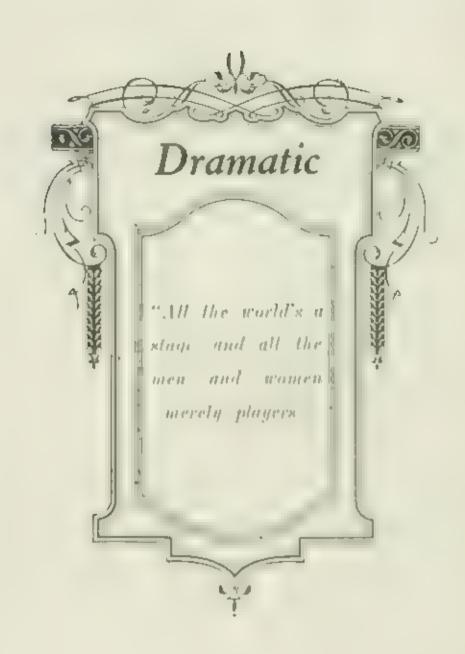

I thank you for this chance to say, "Hello, and Good Luck, Alway cruly,

PAUL R. BROWN,

DEBATE

Early in the fall about fifteen people started work on the State debate question for this year -"Resolved. That the United States should cease to protect by armed force capital invested in Latin America, except after a formal declaration of war."

During chapel hour on November 5, the day before the Presidential election, four of these people argued the fitness of the Republican and Democratic nonrinces to hold office.

After this, work was resumed on the State question. On January 7 our affirmative team held a non-decision particle debate with the Newton High School's negative team in our Study Hall.

One month later, our teams were arguing with West Waterloo and the Training School in the first round of the State Contest. Our negative team defeated West Waterloo by a unanimous decision of the three judges but Teacher's College High School succeeded in securing a two to one decision from our affirmative team. Since they also defeated West Waterloo by a three to nothing decision, they won the contest with five decisions to our four. West Waterloo was unable to secure any decisions.

We hoped for better success at the Teachers's College invitation tournament but unfortunately we will be unable to enter because the large number of debaters at the first of the year has dwindled to five people, and because conflicting events and activities prohibit some of these from depating on that date.

The students who have worked with Mr. Smith have found him a very helpful and efficient coach, and are very grateful for the benefit they have derived from his efforts. Next year we hope to have a regular class in debate and more practice meets. We believe that in this way we shall be able to improve forensies in Cedar Falls High.

We fied for third place with Training School in the Quadrangular. Our oratorical and dramatic contestants were climinated by West Waterloo in the first round of the state contest at Dunkerton. Burton was eliminated in the next contest, which was held at Jesup.

CLASS PLAY--1928

"Are you a Mason?" If you're not you had better be, or your wife'll get you. That's the maxim taught by the senior class play of the Cedar Falls high school, presented May 19. It was received with bilarious hughter by a packed auditorum.

With an exceptionally elever play to begin with and with senior students who were trained until letter perfect in their parts, the combination brought the acme in results. The audience was kept in a continuous uproar from start to finish

The play as a whole was the most entertaining play that Cedar Falls people have seen at the high school for several years. There is not much doubt that they could have filled the house for a server of rmance. Much credit for the presentation goes to the work of Miss Frances Kleaveland who coached the cast and directed the play

THE MID-WINTER PLAY

The Mid-Winter play, Honor Bright was presented March 14, 1929. The play centers around the fact that you - I ichard Barrington is eng ged to Tot Marvel, a chorus girl. The servants are very indignant over this, as well as, his wealthy aunt. Mrs. Carton. But his mother and his uncle, Bishop Carton, are willing to meet the girl, so she is invited to Rockmere.

When Tot fails to appear, Dick persuades Honor Bright, a book agent, to act as Tot, since his family already believe her to be his france. Tot appears on the scene, and causes quite a disturbance, but she leaves with Bill Drum, the pressagent of her show, whom she loves. Then Dick proposes to Honor and she accepts him. The family and servants are all satisfied because they too love Honor Bright.

HI-Y -- Y. W. PLAY

The extreme to which a trifling argument can be carried, and the obtenoveness of the woman about town was well portrayed in the two one-net plays. "Shutting the Door," and "Barrington's at Home," presented by the Hi-Y and Girls' Reserve of the downtown high school before a large crowd in the high school auditorium.

In the opening play, the action led up to the argument of the district of the played by Frederick Breekenfelder, and Margaret, his wife, characterized by Alice Faust, over closing the portal. The other characters of the play were two thieve-portrayed by Elmer Eickelberg and Bayard Fowler. When a threat to kiss the wife brought the act to a chinax, everyone was thoroughly enjoying the acting.

The second play, "Barrington's at Home," centered about the intrasion of Mrs. Dowling, portrayed by Naomi Jewell, into the home of the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Barrington, acted by Burdette Moeller, and Mrs. Barrington, characterized by Marion Sorenson. Virginia Philpot played the part of Jane, the maid, and Richard Sucher was James, the butler.

The plays were directed by Miss Helen Stover, dramatic instructor at the high school.

Music was furnished by the high school orchestra, under the direction of Harry Kauffman, and also by Leo Olsen, soloist, who was recalled for several encores. L. M. 29

Just a Comment

Before I begin to commence the beginning.
This rhyme I shall now dedicate
To Mr. Smith and Moss Stover and all those who labored
In Dramo, "Declam," and Debate.

The plays were enjoyed by all who were in them. And we won't forget by and by 'The night that "Tuh" Johnson came out of the kitchen 'To blacken "Art" Mullen's eye.

In Debate and "Declam", we had some disappointment Although our teams did their best.

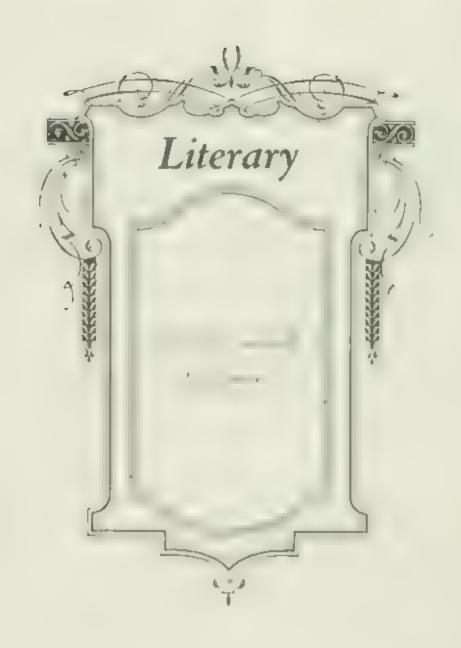

And the trouble was not with ones who were chosen.

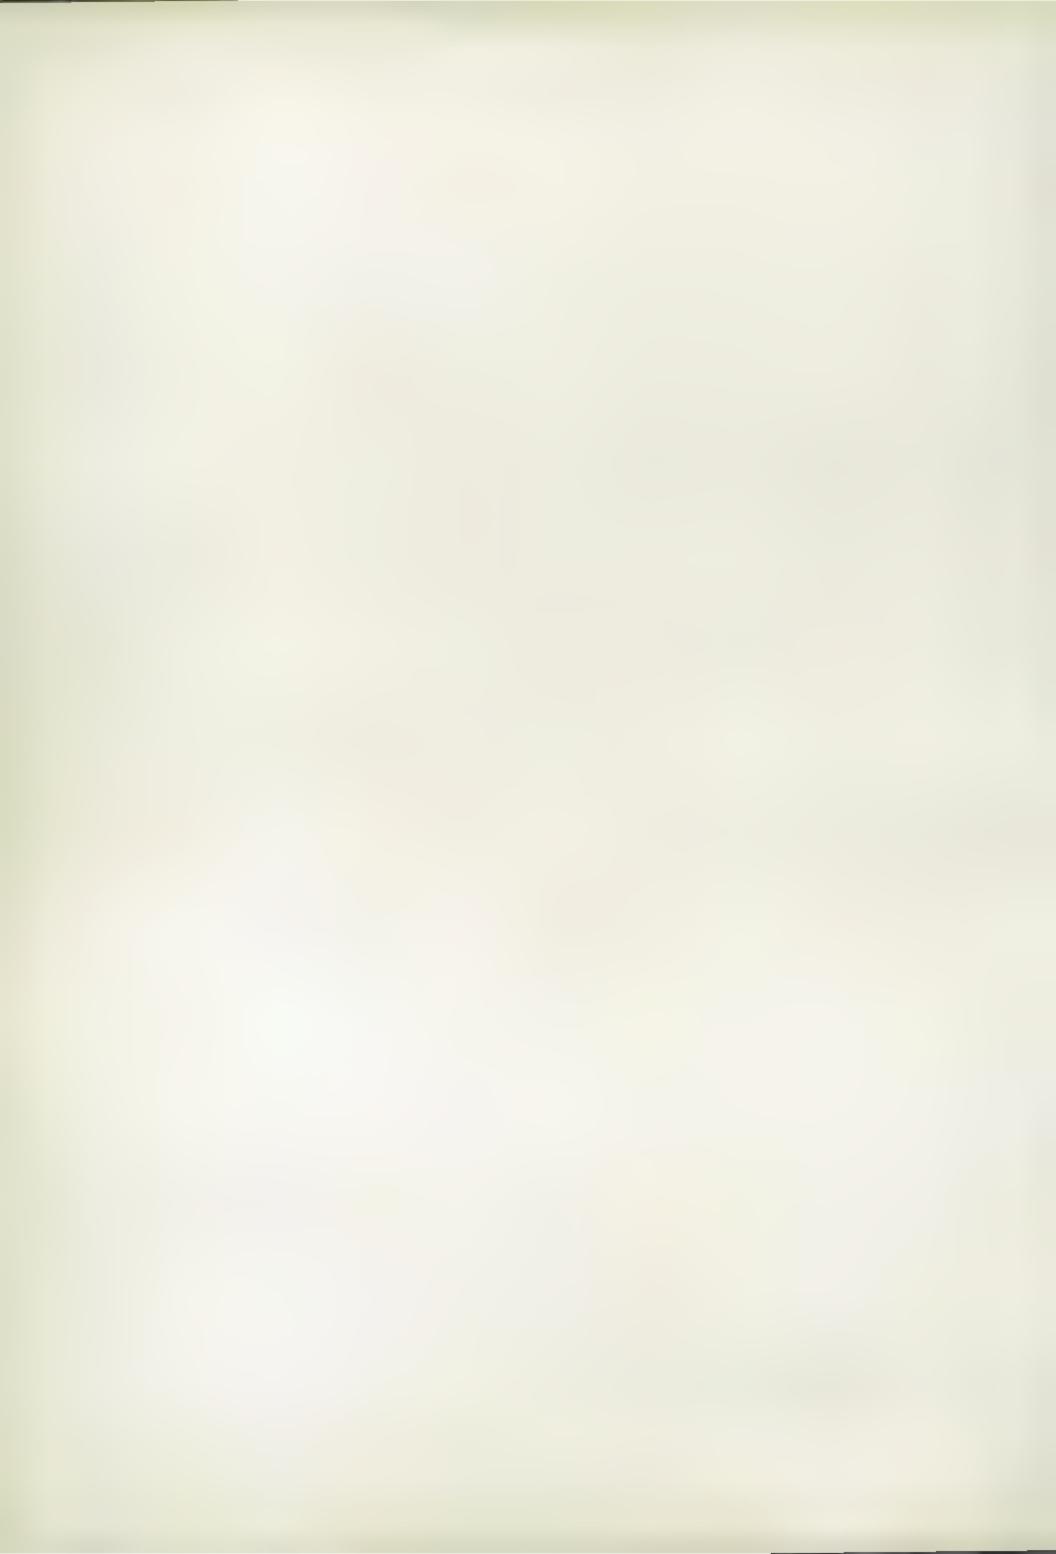

Twas mostly the fault of the rest.

There are always some slackers who don't even ask, What all the excitement's about, And surely we would have come out ahead. If more of us had turned out,

Things didn't go over as we'd like to have them And, that, we can't fail to re_ t
But the fun that we had while we worked altogether Is the thing we shall never forget.

M. G. C.

Oh! That Rah-Rah Influence

"So this is C. F. High School?"
Said a Freshy to a Soph,
"Uve beard about this place
Just a little on and off,"

Y - this is C. F. High School, The home of Red and Black I suppose you've heard of tight and Both in field and track

"More I'd like to have you know Of such a famous school, Mostly of the Gym and Coach And of the swimming pool,"

"Well, you see, here is the Chapel And there are the halls and stairs, And down below the A. B. C's For all the worms and cares,"

"But past these things we'll scurry.
With all the speed we may.
Acquainted with those things you'll get
Some other time and day."

"We're heading for the pleasant things.
The ones we love so much,
The locker room and showers,
The balls, supples and show

"Now we behold a famous Gym, Where tigers hold their sway, Here they play a game each ni And practice through the day,

"And here you see all laid aside,
The reason for some check."
The shoes, the to some check.
And the battle-scale of the law.

"But just you want until the time.
When track is all the '*.

The team we call the 'tigers', they.
Will let that 'bull fight' show."

"In education or in sacts
Old C, F, sure lass es.
For up against the best of schools
That tiger spirit stands."

Biography of Cedar Falls High School

Back in the early days a party of settlers were driving their ox-teams along a road (now called Rambow Drive). One of the men, Jacob Hayseed by name, had become mentally unbalanced during the trip, and conceived the idea of founding a school. (No one but the mentally unbalanced would want to found a school). One day they reached a place where some Indian boys were enjoying the pastime of Sock-em-hard, an old Indian name for football. Jacob immediately decided to build a school here.

Was pouring a great deal of lard on the floors so they would be good and slippery and over it poured the water shed from the tears of urchins reprimanded by the principal. This is the reason for the slippery floors of today. He also built a small room off the study hall which he was going to use for a gymnasium, but at the last minute decided to use it for the principal's office.

He secured a competent staff of teachers composed of Mr. Havemore Brains of Electoral College, Miss Crusher Skull from the Benson Memorial College and Mr. Muscle Shoals, the coach, who played football four years on the team of the International Correspondence School, and took one and one-half lessons on how to get strong by Eatmore Onions.

The first day of school was very peaceful and calm, and the faculty amused themselves by playing tiddledywinks. Don't get excited, gentle readers, the reason was that Jake didn't have anybody in school. So the first thing he did was to wire the Insane Asylum for some pupils to fill his school. (These are the queer to sing people who gather in the hall.)

His next step was establishing a football team. The prospects were not so good because he had no man heavier than four hundred pounds. As all the squad were raving maniaes, the signal practice didn't work very good because each one thought he was one of the three musketeers, Napolean, or Julius Ceasar, and would stalk around looking grun and defiant. (Editor's note: Bob Speer is the only one of the original squad alive today.)

The basketball team was very good, but the main difficulty was that the men would knock their heads on the beams of the ceiling. This was soon remedied, however, by getting the cheering section to raise the roof. (Author's note: Please excuse this wise one. I know it smells rotten but it's the best I can do.) One of the greatest events in history was when Cedar Falls beat Training School. We were losing and our best man was barred from the game, but he came on the floor disguised as a basketball and won the game by jumping through the basket.

Many famous men have graduated from Cedar Falls High. The most important are Pancho Villa, Gyp the blood and Big Bill Thompson. Another famous man is Sir Gustav Wheezeblom, who got his title by inventing a device to put a permanent wave in the British flag. This was unnecessary for the American fig.

Once in a while a bad egg comes to C. F. High and never finishes. Two of these are Anita Thalman and Emm i Marie Theimer. These people never graduate and generally go to school until sent to the Old Peoples Home.

Out in the hall there is a famous clock which was discovered in some ancient Greek runs by Reginald Smiffleblister, the English explorer. One thing amusual about this clock is the easy way to tell the time. You add up the numbers, multiply by six, divide by two and subtract four. You then take the answer in to Miss Bait to have it checked. If it is all right you look at your watch, and Presto! You know what time it is. There is also a drinking fountain in the hall which sometimes pours forth genuine water, but most of the time the students go around with swollen tongues and parched lips to lap up the dew around the bottom of it.

At present there is a huge sign on the bulletin board to warn the students against so-called bazing. This school is getting tame. When I was in school the morning after a class fight the papers would come out with extras, with pictures printed in them marked, "X marks the spot where the bodies were found,"

One of our most famous graduates is General Nuisance, the military genius who learned his stuff from Miss Monnett.

We do have to thank old Jake for building this school, because it is a pretty good place to go if your ma won't let you stay home. Even if Jake was a bit cracked, he did a pretty good job.

It's Six Below

When it's nearly six "Sub" zero.

And you swear that you are "froze",

When the wind is shricking shrilly
Round your frosted ears and nose.

Driving in all openings the white and stinging snow,

You're dying like a hero, for it's nearly six below.

The windows are all frosted,
(So is your front and back)
And your cars are nearly frozen,
And a touch would make them crack.
Then you think of summer weather and the sun you used to know.
When the wind blows thru your whiskers and it's nearly six below.

So sing a song of Summer,
(No one is frozen stark)
Sing a song of summer,
And long walks in the park.
Now no nifty rendezvous,
(No one could stand it, I nor you).
Oh, Summer fair, we miss you so.
We nibs you, 'cause it's six below.

The School Pest

(With Apologues)

Oh I want teacher to be
Nice and lenient with me:
But she don't wanna.
She don't wanna.
Oh I want to be her pet
Like all the girls are I get;
But she don't want me.
She don't want me.
How I beg and plead for a higher grade;
But she turns me down and isn't afraid.
She says, "Farm it, my son;
"And don't expect one by dun.
For you won't get it,"

Spring

I wandered alone one day last spring And discovered a river where nightingales sing. It was blue as the sky, reflecting the sun, Langling and tumbling, so full of real fun.

I wished just then that I might be \(\frac{1}{1} \) or so sparkling, and run to the sea, With birds in the branches of green trees above. And flowers to wave at, to gaze at, and love.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Cedar Falls Science Club is an organization in its second year at Cedar Falls High School. It is composed of students who are interested in delying deeper than the clossroom discussion into the three Sciences, Chemistry, Physics, and Biology. The members of the club, numbering about 25, meet in the science lecture room once every two weeks on Thursday night. The program this year was filled with interesting meetings

In November the members attended the lecture at 1, 8, T. C. given by Dr. Slosson. Among the outside speakers, who were invited to give us talks on their interesting lines were. Dr. Kadesch, Dr. Gerchell, and Dr. Abbot, well known friends from I. S. T. C.

Several programs intersprend throughout the year were conducted by the members, outstanding of which were:

"Chemistry and the study of Dr. Slosson's Life."

"A Brolog Demonstration"

"Scrence and Christi

"A Physics Demonstration."

"Science as a Vocation,"

We held two open meetings in the auditorium where motion pictures were shown as special attractions,

The officers for the year were as follows:

G. R.

The year of 1928-1929 has been a very successful one for the Girl Reserves of Cedar Falls High, due to the loyalty and hard work of our President, Naomi Jewell, and our sponsers, Miss Ruit and Miss Sebern. Because of their efforts, and the willing cooperation of every member, exceptional interest has been shown in everything that the G. R. has accomplished.

The meetings, which were held once every two were consisted of religious and special programs, including many very interes——speakers.

The Cabinet members for 1928-1929 were:

HI-Y

Although we did not attain a 100 percent membership, we have load a very stressful year. On October 30, we took in twenty new members at the induction ceremony. On the first meeting of each month we had a speaker, while on the second and fourth, we held discussion groups. The discussions were very interesting. We also had hincheous once each month served us by the domestic seamee girls.

The social activities for the year were the Eather-Son Banquet which was deld November 26 at the Methodist Church, a Stag Party and the Hi-Y-Y, W. Party.

The State Older Boys Conference was held at Mason City, December 7, 8, and 9. Those who represented our club were, Burdette Moeller, Richard and Robert Sucher, Aclos Osen, and Stauley Petersen. We still have the sectional conference to look forward to, which is to be held April 5 and 6 at New Hartford,

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The G. A. A. was organized in our High School in the fall of 1921 by Mrs. Harshbarger, the girls' physical training director at that time. The association was originated for the purpose of creating among the girls a greater interest in sports and raising the standards of sportsmanship. It is the only honorary organization in the High School. For membership the girls must have an average of eighty-five percent in scholastics and 150 points which can be carned in class, passing in efficiency and tripple tests, and attendance to all physical training classes and G. A. A. Meetings.

Each year the girls, with the physical director's help, have charge of demonstrations which consists of games, gynnastics, and folk dances, which are demonstrated by the girls of Junior and Sentor High and all of the grade pupils.

A banquet for the members is held at the end of each school year, at which time the new officers are installed, and a short program is enjoyed,

Miss Schnirring has sponsored the G. A. A. very well and has worked up a larger and better club. There are now twenty four members, forming the largest membership since the association was organized.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

During the past year the Cooking Class has had considerable experience in the cooking and serving of foods. They arranged the dinners for the School Board, at their regular meeting, the first Monday of every month. Seven Hi-Y luncheons and one Football Banquet, as well as, a Buffet Durner, for this class, were provided.

Last May the Sewing Class held a public exhibition in which all garments nade during the year were shown. This gave evidence that the girls were able to plan their own wardrobes tastefully, thoughtfully, and economically

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

Rumbows furnished the subjects for the toasts and the color scheme for the Junior Semon banquet, held at the Blackbawk hotel, May 26, 1928,

The tables were aglow with many brilliant colors. Rainbows of crepe paper were held in place by pots of gold, on each table. Favors were crepe paper-trimined pencils of delicate colors. The place cards and programs represented pots of gold and the nut cups were in bues corr sponding to the other decorations.

Sophomore boys and girls, dressed as fairnes and brownies, served the dinner which consisted of:

Fruit Cocktail

Creamed Chicken

Timbale Cases

Snowflake Potatoes

Green Beans

Spring Salad

Rolls

Butter

Rainbow Lee Cream

Cake

Candies .

· Coffee

Nuls

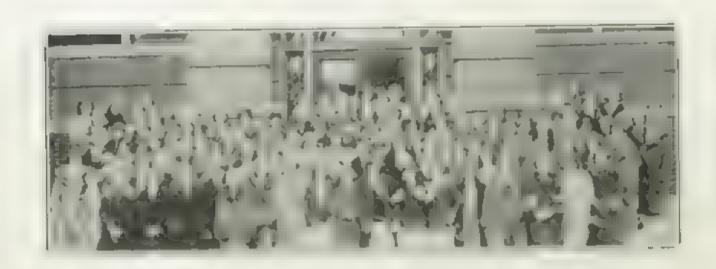

The Junior Class President, Arloe Oben, acted as toustmaster and introduced the following speakers:

The dance of the Rambow Nymphs was given by two girls,

Myrtle Brown played a piano number and Leo Olsen concluded the program with a vocal solo,

The remainder of the evening was spent in duncing, music being furnished by the Midnite Ramblers,

R. L. B. '29.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

On March 7, 1929, the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held in the dining-room of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. It was the outstanding social event of the year for the Girl Reserves, who gave the banquet in honor of their mothers

The program after the hanquet, opened with a solo by Ruth Latta, which everyone enjoyed very much. Naomi Jewell, the President, gave a welcoming toast to the mothers. Mrs. Dachlen responded as representative of the mothers.

The Girls' Sextette rendered several numbers followed by a humorous reading by Josephine Jackson. After a xylophone solo played by Marion Sorenson, the program was closed by the singing of "Pollow the Glenn," the National Girl Reerve Song.

The following menu was served

Road Pork

Mashed Polators

Sweet Polatnes

Salad

Rolls

Jam

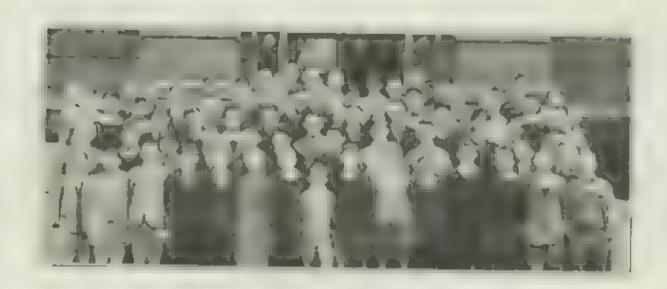

Pukles

Lone Sherhet

Cake

Coffee

The tables were beautifully decorated with green candles and bowls of sweet peas, which were sent by the Hi-Y boys

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

The annual Father-Son Bauquet was held at the Methodos Church, November 26th. There were about seventy Dads and Sons Present.

The toasimas r for the evening was Burdette Moeller, President of the organization. After a delicious linner, Arthur Mullens gave a welcoming foast to the "Dads". Mr. Joseph Clay responded for the fathers. The address of the evening was given by Mr. A. C. Fuller. The Y. W. girls kindly remembered the occasion and at the end of the meal we all—joved the candy sent by them. The program was completed with group sing :

All School Party

The All School Party was held in the gymmasium on Thursday evening, March 22. It was well attended and some of our parents came to enjoy the evening with

The decorations were carried out in vellow and white. The entire gynousiam had a emopy of yellow and white streamers and the dance programs took the form of opened eggs also in these two colors. The reception room was divided by a white battice fence garlanded with brightly colored flowers. The orchestra, the Midnite Bamblers, was concented by a white lattice work.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Streeter and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer.

Punch was served between dances by Miss Henderson and her committee.

Junior-Senior Picnic

The Junior-Senior pienic was held on May 29, 1928, at the north end of Island Park.

It is customary for the Seniors to have a picuic for the Jumors, a very informal affair but held for the purpose of having a good time.

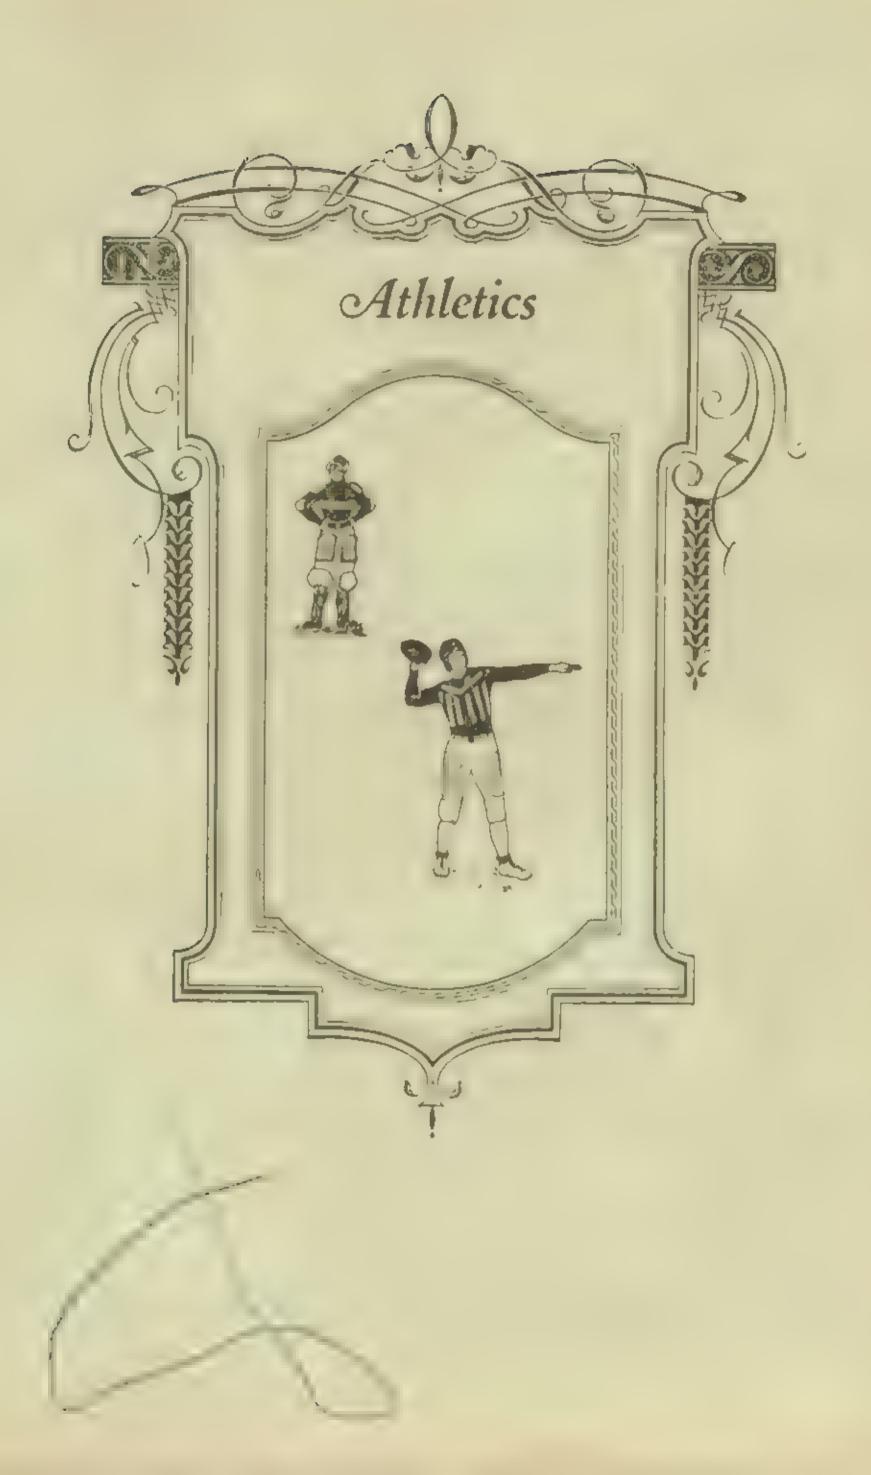

The girls and boys both participated in playing baseball, which was referred by Coach Denton. Many "knock-outs" and "time-outs" were witnessed by the on-lookers, when the girls batted balls cutside the diamond.

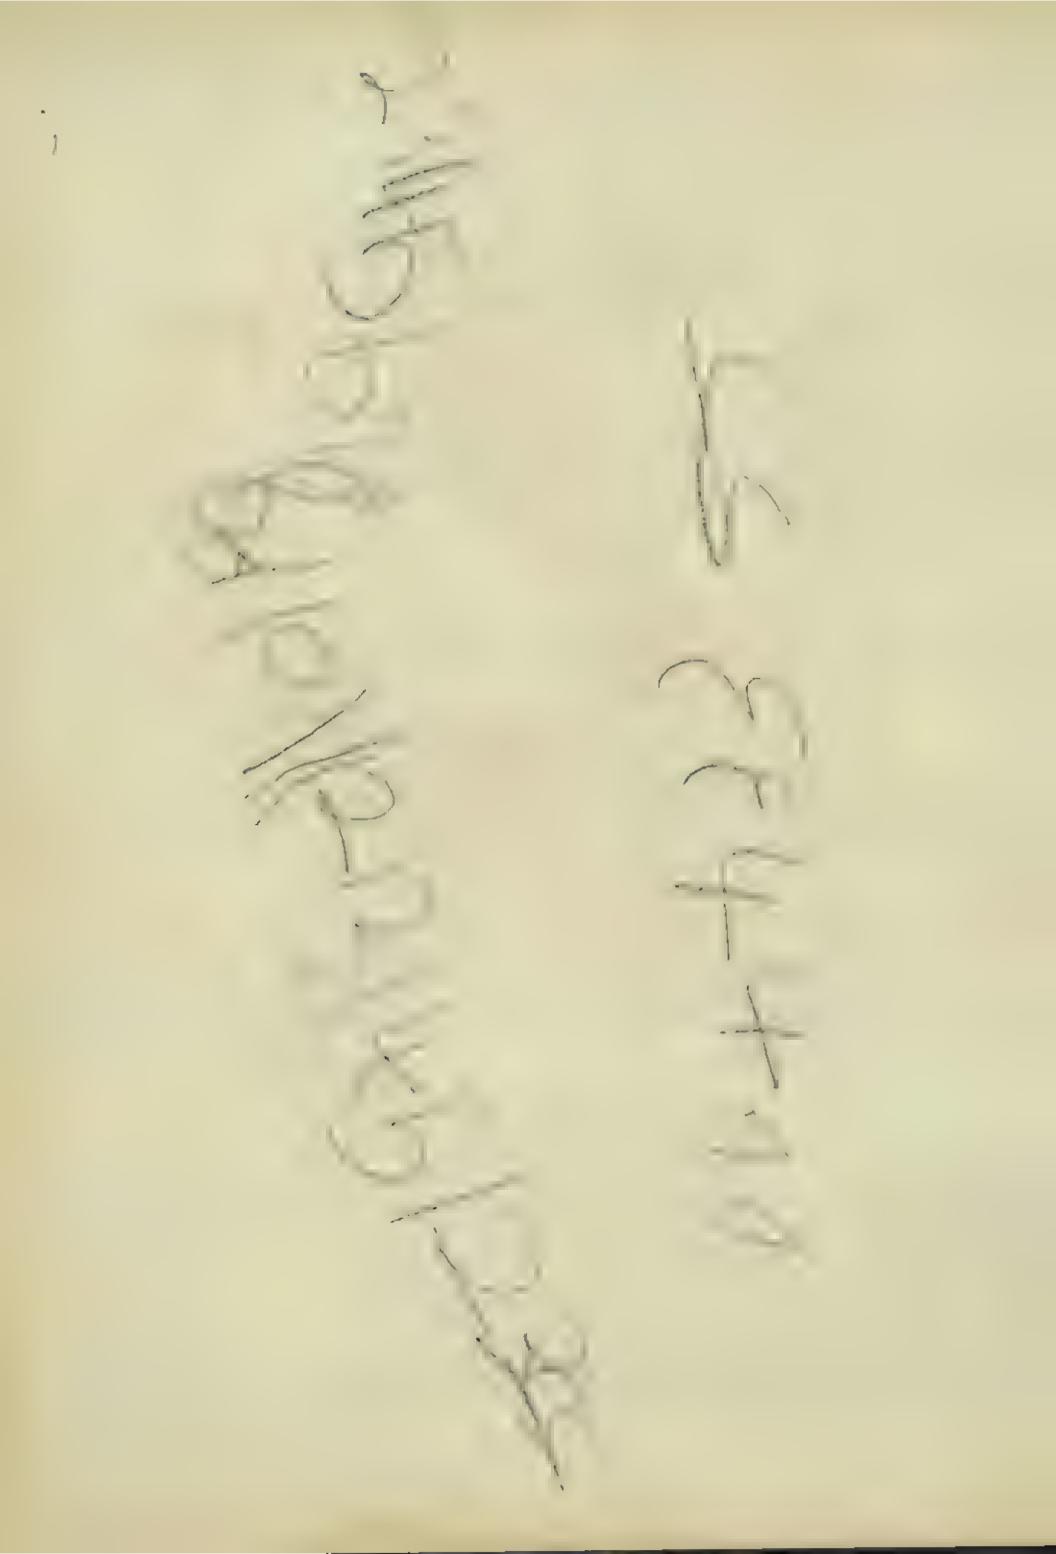

At six o'clock the Seniors served hot dogs, coffee, pickles, potnto salad, cake and chocolite ice cream sundies.

We returned home as the sun was settin, and the moon was rising.

Y. W. Get-Together

On Friday evening, Febru 3, 8, 1929, the Y. W. girls had a pieme in the Domestic Science rooms. The object of this was to have a number of girls represented at the basketball game we played with West Waterloo in our gym that night. Some of the girls had prepared some stunts which were very clever, and then we played some games, most of which were new to all of us. Then a delicious meal was served. After eating, we girls, seventy-five strong, went to see our boys cheerfully take a defeat at the hands of West Waterloo.

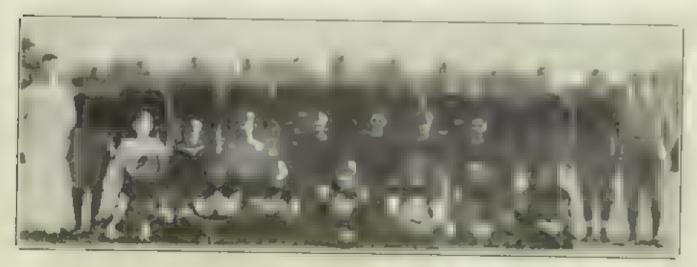

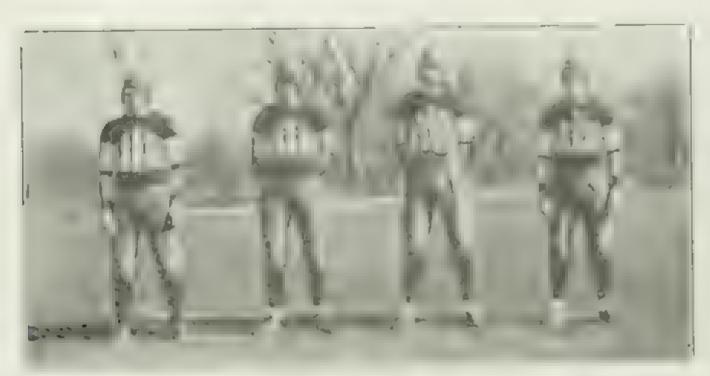

FOOTBALL

One of the largest groups of feell aspirants to turn out at this chool reported for practice when to the solution of the second while the solution of school. While the solution is not show a single victory, we feel that the boys have learned a lesson in sportsmaniship which they will long remember

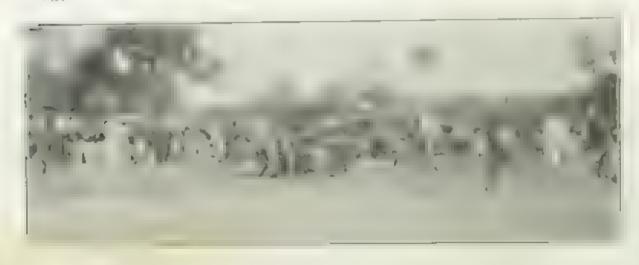

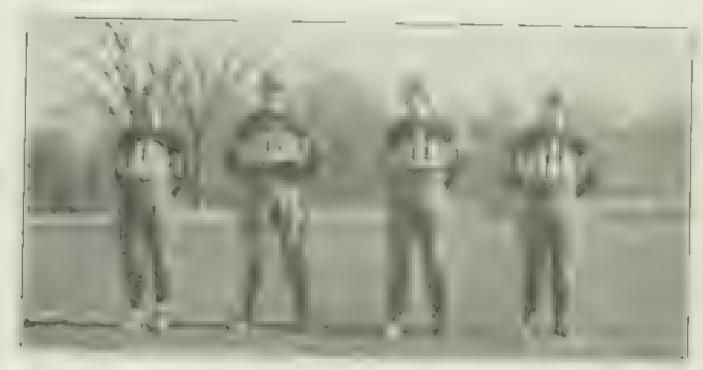

CAPTAIN JUSTICE WILSON: PULLBACK, "Joe" was kept out of three of the games because of injuries, but in the games that he did play he showed excellent leadership and prevented many an opponent's gain by his limit tackling.

LEO OTSEX: ILVIEBYCK, "Otte" was kept out of several of the games because of injuries, but when he was in there he played hard. He should be remembered for his ability to catch passes, especially in the Training School game. Another good man lost by graduation,

ARTHUR MULLENS: END. This was "Art's" first year of football, and although he did not play as a regular he showed up well when in a game. He graduates.

Robert Speed: Quarterback, "Bob" was the mainstay of our back-field, both on offense and on detense. His ability to run back punts was not questioned. Cedar Falls loses a good man as he graduates this year.

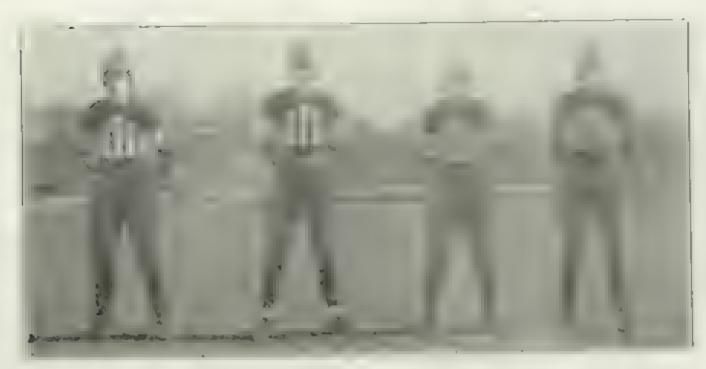

ARLOE OFSEN: GUARD. Although Arloe didn't play as a regular, he was in there enough to show as what red hair and a temper to match it will do when riled. He will be missed from future C. F. teams.

THEODORE HANSEN: might tackle. Although "Ted" lacked experience he played a consistent game at tackle. He is also lost by graduation.

Cirvings Joxes: Right of viin. "Chuck" played his second and last year of football for Colar Falls. He was one of the fastest men on the team. He should be remembered for the touchdown which he scored against T. C. H. S.

James Petric: tertivekts "Jim" played his second year of football for C. He could open be sor block, and showed-up well on defense. Jim" graduates the CLAYFOX PALMUR: "Palmer" had a rather difficult part to play as he took Wilson's place in the backfield while doe was injured and at other times played in the line thereby giving him double duty. Palmer returns next year.

RICHAM CHRISTENSEN: CENTER, "Dick" played his first year of football and did a good job of it. On offense his passes were accurate and on defense he usually was found where the buttle was hottest. "Dick" has one more year of competition.

CAPTAIN-ELECT ELMER CAWELTIE LETT GUARD. Although lacking in experience, he showed lumself a hard tackler and blocker and gamed a place on the team and the 1929 captainacy.

Lewis Lyke: Exp. "Lake" who played his first year of football, was one of the fast st men on the team, and usually was the first man down on punts. Lake returns next year, Laserem II vi num: might to be a valuable end next year. He has plenty of speed and doesn't lack anything as far as "scrap" goes.

ANTHONY JESMORE: HAIFBACK. The fact that "Tony" is only a sophomore didn't prevent him from playing a good brand of football. With two more years of competition Tony should develop into a star.

John Wilson: Altho "Johnny" failed to play in enough games to get bis letter, he showed ability, and with this year's experience should be a valuable man for C. F. High next season. He played at fullback and quarter-back.

Gorbox James: "Gordy" just missed playing enough quarters to qualify for a letter, but when he was in the game he proved himself a capable man in the line. We regret that we lose hum by graduation.

COACH R. G. ROGERS

Mr. Rogers, who began his work at C. F. this year, found a disheartening task confronting him. Only five letter men were back for Football, and about the same condition existed in the other sports. Realizing the impossibility of building a winning team in one year, his first thoughts were of the future rather than the present. He starfed to coach all the available Freshman, Sophomore and Juntor boys in the fundamentals of the different sports, so that 1. High School could in a year or two, return to its old high standard in athletics. Mr. there received his training at Morningside , and came to us from Eldera where he laid been coaching winning teams for the past flerce vears.

We, the class of 1929, wish him the best of smeres.

"Every school is known by the spirit, entinosiusm, and "pep" its students display at the games, meets and other scholastic contests held on one campus, That great old C. F. yell will always be heard,—'Yea, Toyers Fight!'"

Mr. Pettit bas been with us for the past two years. As assistant coach he has centered his efforts mainly upon the welfare of our football team by taking charge of the backfield, and acting as account team coach, thereby giving Coach Ro as more time for the direction of the first total and coaching the line. He also has charge of the minor sports,—swimming, golf and tennis. Mr. Pettit has considerable knowledge in the fundamentals of the different sports, receiving his training at Grinnell College and the University of Wisconsin.

"After two years at Cedar Fulls High School, I believe that I can honestly say that the spirit of this school has never known defeat. May it always sustain that recor

FOOTBALL, 1928

Although a glance at the football scores does not show a single victory, we are certain that the experience gamed by the men who return for next year's football season is of great importance. Many difficulties were encountered by Coaches Rogers and Pettit in trying to mould a team. Practically all, with the exception of the five lettermen who returned, had no experience even with the fundamentals of the game. This defect the coaches set out to reincily by scheduling several second team games with Training School and East Waterloo, thereby giving practically every man on the squad some of the much needed experience. Prospects for winning teams in the near future are bright as about thirty-five men reported for practice every night, and out of this number only ten graduate.

On September 22, C. F. met the Nashua team. The game was well played but C. F. forfeited the game, when we found that two of our men were ineligible, the score thereby being 2-0 in favor of Nashua.

The next is me was played at Eldora. Lack of experience marked the play of the entire—me, and Eldora was able to push the pigskin over for three touchdowns. The first score was 19-0.

The following game was with Oclwein at C. F. with Pickering, the all-state bull back carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein managed to run up in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein managed to run up in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein managed to run up in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein managed to run up in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein managed to run up in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein managed to run up in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the ball around our ends, Oclwein in the carrying the carr

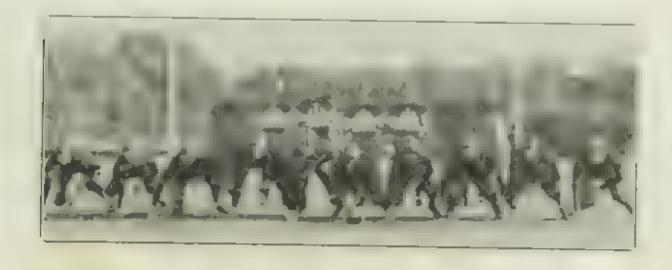

On October 26 C. F. journeyed to Independence minus the services of Olsen and Captain Wilson. The men did their best, but Independence won the battle 26-6.

Our next game was with Training School. The whole team played well. Training School secret a touchdown on the first play when they completed a long pass. They scored again later in the time. "Chuck" Jones accounted for our only touchdown when he picked up a fumble and crossed their goal line. The final score was 12-6 in favor of T. C. H. S.

The following game with. Waverly showed teamwork on the part of every man, C. F. outplayed them in every quarter, one time advancing the ball to their 2 yard line, but were penalized for pushing, thereby losing our opportunity to score. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

The last game was played at New Hampton without Jesmore and Captainelect, Cawelti. The victory went to New Hampton after they lad crossed our goal line four times, the score being 25-0

We have paid tribute to the football season of 1928, and are now eager for the season of 1929. We hope fate will treat as more kindly to make up for the regrets of this past season.

BASKETBALL

Co-Carraix Robert Spers: "Bob" who played his third year of backet ball, was in there scrapping and showed good judgment when leading the team. Bob graduates.

Co-Carraix Leo Olsex: Leo was good at working the ball down the floor as well as making , sod the shots he had when he reached the basket. Leo also graduates.

PERRY SANDENT: PORWARD. Perry was not eligible until the second semester and then did not play as a regular. He should be remembered for his work in the second lowa Falls game. He will be back next year.

JOSEPH WILSON: GUARD, Joe played his second and last year of basketball for C. F. His long shots added many points to our scores.

Lasren Hyrrens: I s" lacked experime but made up for it in fight and determination. He returns next ye Gornov James: Forward. Small and consistent, that's "Gordy" he had plenty of non and that which did not want throughout the season. "Gords ates this yes

Ellitor Syrskii: Although only a sophomore, he showed an unusual amount of fight. He will be back next year to help produce a winning term.

CAPTAIN-BLECT RICHARD CHRISTENSEN: GUARD, "Dick" showed ability as a good guard and could be depended upon to break up the opponents plays as they neared the basket. "Dick" returns next year,

BASKETBALL, 1928-29

The basketball season opened with a game at Waverly. The game was close throughout, with each team leading at various times. At the sound of the gun Waverly was on top of a 11-11 score. Olsen was high point man of the local aggregation with five points.

To keep in trim during the Christmas vacation a game was scheduled with an Alumni All-Star team. The boys fought hard but were forced to be content with the short end of a $3-12 score. Olsen and Wilson were the luminaries for the local team.

After the holidays C. F. went to East Waterloo where they came up against some real competition. At the end of the first half the score was knotted at 6-all. However, during the second half the Waterloo boys found the basket and we wondefeated 18-12. Speer showed up well for C. F.

On January 11 La Porte came here with one of the best teams it has had for years. They showed good team work and had a deadly eve for the basket. At the end of the first half the score stood 9-2 with the down river team in the lead. During the second half our boys braced and played them on even terms but were not able to overcome the seven point margin. The game ended with La Porte in the lead 24-17.

The first victory of the season came on January 18 with lowa Falls as the victim. The local boys opened fire in the first minute of play when James sunk two field goals in rapid succession. C. F. lead throughout the game. The score being 19-3 at the end of the first half. During the second half practically our whole second team played and when the gun sounded they were still at the top of a 26-15 score.

The next game was with our old rivids at T. C. H. S. The first half was close, neither team having a large lead at any time. The fact that our boys were not accustomed to playing on such a large floor perhaps was the cause of their downfull. When the end of the game came T. C. H. S. was leading 21-18. Olsen was high point man for the Downtown High.

The return game with East Waterloo proved an exciting game. At the end of the first half Waterloo had a one-point lead. In the second half C. F. forged ahead and seemed about to win the game when Elliot a guard on the Waterloo team, found a seemingly "Lucky" spot on the floor from which he proceeded to drop in four field goals in rapid succession to give Waterloo the game with a 14-11 score. On the local team Christensen and Sp. er showed up well.

The second game with T. C. H. S., which decided the City Championship for this year, was played on the local floor. The game was close throughout, both teams showing an unusual amount of fight. At the end of the first balf Training School led 13-8. During the second half with the spectators wildly urging them on, the local boys out-scored Training School to $1.25.7 when there was but thirty seconds to play. In an overtime period T. C. H. S. made a field goal thereby winning both the game and also the City Championship for this year, Olsen and Christensen were the outstanding players for C. 1

On February 15 the local team went to lowa Falls where they were given a 31-24 set-back. It was a rough contest, many fouls being called but few of the free throws were made good by either team. Sanborn was high point man for Cedar Falls with six points.

Waverly came here for the return game apparently confident of another victory. They lived up to their hopes during the first half at the end of which they led 11-8. However Coach Rogers gave the local team an inspiring talk between halves which caused them to come back and out-score the opponents 2 to 1 and to win the game 18-15. The whole team played well.

The team avenged the defeat which New Hampton handed us in football by downing them in basketball. It was a fast game featured by close guarding by both teams. We led at the halfway mark 10-6. Although New Hampton tried desperately to overcome this lead, Cedar Falls was still ahead at the sound of the gun 14-13. The whole team played well.

TRACK, 1928

Cinder path competition opened for the Torce in a dual meet with T. C. H. Although our opponents were doped to win, C. F. upset the bucket and won 62.58 Jacobsen was high scorer of the meet with first in the pole vault, discus, and shot, and third place in the high jump.

Our next meet was at Waverly. Lake won the 440. Keller won the high burdles, and Jones took first in the low hurdles. The final score was 80-18 in favor of Waverly.

The last meet in which we participated was the Cedar Valley meet. Gram and Jacobsen both placed.

The following men were awarded letters: Gram, Jacobsen, Keller, Jones, and Lake. Jones and Lake were the only lettermen who returned this year.

TRACK, 1929

As this edition of the Red and Black goes to press, Coach Rogers is Informalias track aspirants for the approaching track season. A squad of about twenty five men reported for practice, and hopes are high at the present time for a winning team. Following is a copy of the schedule for this spring.

TEN RED PEPPERS

This year instead of liaving the usual Pep Leader and his assistant, Mr. Street suggested the idea of having a Pep Squad to be composed of students from the Semors, Juniors and Sophomores. This group was known as "The Red Peppers" and had char all the Pep Meetings and introduced many new and elever stunts. Under their efficient direction the student body regained some of their school spirit and pep that had apparently been lost.

"The Red Peppers" accompanied the Footfall and Basketball teams on most of their trips, and though the student body wasn't there to make all the noise, no doubt the Squad injected much pep and enthusiasm into the fellows.

GOLF-TENNIS, 1928

Golf and Tennis enjoyed their first year as organized minor sports during the spring of 1928. A tournament was played in each of the sports with Robert Keller winning the medal in Golf, and Leonard Olsen receiving the Tennis award.

Several matches were played with nearby schools. Of these nutches we lost only one in Golf, but were not nearly as successful in Tennis, losing every match. The summary of the senson is as follows

GIRLS' SOCCER FOOTBALL

The girls annual Socror Footbal fournament was won this year by the Sophomore, who defeated the Seniors, and Juniors. The tournament was opened by the Sophomore-Junior games which ended in favor of the Sophomores. In the Senior-Sophomore game, the Sophomores were again victorious. The final game for the championship was a fast and furious one, the Seniors Josing by a small amount. The captains of the teams were: Seniors, Kathryn Van Loh: Juniors, Marion Jepsen: Sophomores, Mary Louise Mitze.

GIRLS' VOLLEY BALL

The Seniors won the Volley Ball Tournament. The Sophomores were second and the Juniors third. The boxs as well as the girls attended these games, which made the girls work harder just to show the boys what they could do. The captains of these teams were: Seniors, Eathryn Van Loh: Juniors, Mary Louise Hoyt. Sophomores, Lorraine Torbett.

LOYALTY SONG

We're loval to you C. F. High:
To our colors we're true, C. F. High
We'll back you to stand,
Canst the best in the land,
Lor we know you have the sand, C. F. High.

RAH! RAH!

So smash that blockade, C. F. High, Go crashing ahead, C. F. High; Our team is our strong protector, On, boys, for we expect a victory From you, C. F. High.
